Elect Bill Brandt Democratic State Central Committeeman

Bill Brandt.

Putting his experience to work.

Bill Brandt has been a leader promoting education, economic opportunity and the ideals of the Democratic Party. He's ready to put that experience to work as our next State Central Committeeman.

- A leading strategist to top Democrats for more than thirty years. Democrats including Sen. Dick Durbin, and Presidents Clinton and Obama have relied on Bill's advice and hard work.

- Founder of Development Specialists, Inc.

Bill has been recruited by government leaders to keep workers in their jobs and save taxpayers money. Bill was appointed to resolve one of the nation's largest bank failures and protect the assets of middle-income families. The State of Ohio turned to Bill to resolve the "Coin Fund" scandal and to recover millions of taxpayers' dollars.

- Chairman of the Illinois Finance Authority. Bill has spent more than 1,500 volunteer hours working to reform the IFA, helping generate more than $5 billion to stimulate the Illinois economy and put people to work.

- Trustee at Loyola University and national advisor to University of California's Institute of Governmental Studies, where he's encouraged young people to enter public service. He will build on this experience by recruiting and mentoring the next generation of 10th district Democrats.
